

Friday Collective Worship
Look back, looking forward

Call: The peace of the Lord be with you.

Response: And also with you.

Let's start by looking back at the week that's gone by.

Is there anything you need to say sorry to God or another person for?

You could join in with this sorry prayer:

Dear Lord,
I am sorry for the things I have done wrong.
Help me to be kind to people and to follow your ways.
Amen

What have you done well this week, what are you most proud of?
Have you made something, or done some great work, or helped someone else with something?
Give yourself a pat on the back!

What are you most thankful for?

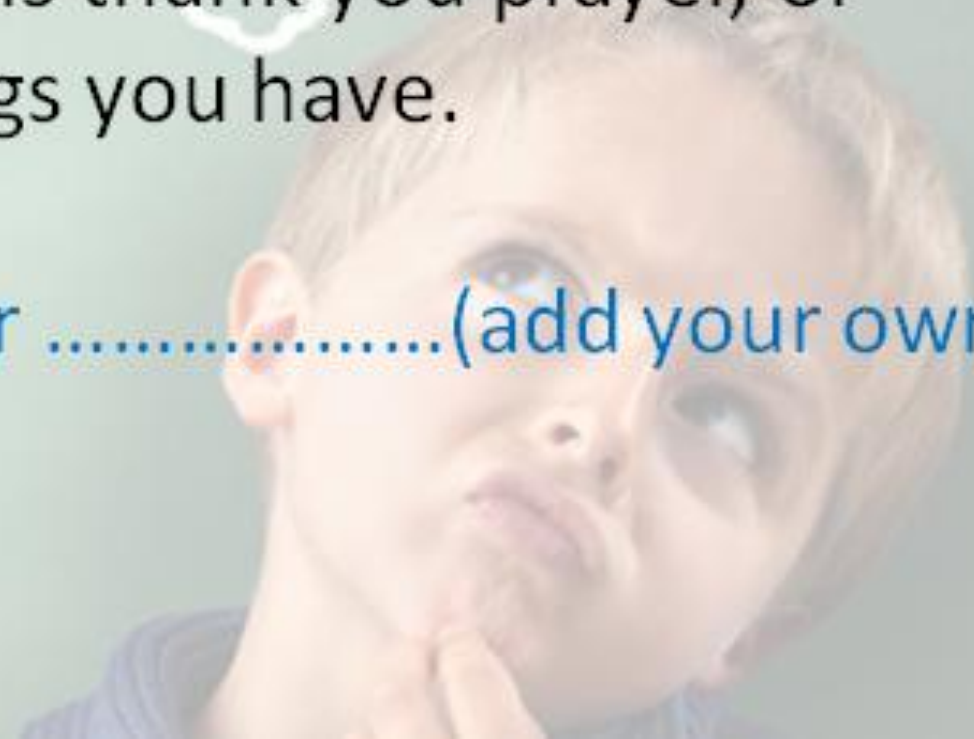

Your family? Sunshine? Pets? Toys? Delicious food?

Something else?

You could join in with this thank you prayer, or reflect on the good things you have.

Dear Lord, Thank you for(add your own words in here.)

Amen.

Now let's look forward to the week that's coming up.

What are you hoping for in the coming week?

What new things might you learn?

What would you like to do?

What are your goals for the week?

Spend a few minutes reflecting on the week that's been and the week that's coming up.

You could join in with this prayer if you would like to:

Dear Lord,
We thank you for all that we have done, and all that we have enjoyed this week. Thank you for giving us the ability to achieve and do new things.

We pray that in this coming week we would walk closely with you and enjoy all the good things you have for us.

Amen

A young child with light brown hair is shown from the chest up, looking upwards and to the right with a thoughtful expression, their hand near their chin. A large, white, hand-drawn thought bubble originates from the child's head, containing the text. The background is a solid light grey.

You could find a song to sing from the singing section of the Collective Worship web page:
